From most points of origin, easiest access is from Interstate Rte. 787 or Route 20 from Albany.

From 787: Take the Rensselaer Exit for Rtes. 9 and 20 off of Rte.787. This travels across the river on the Dunn Memorial Bridge.

From Albany: Take Rt. 20East (pick it up at the bottom of Madison Avenue at the intersection with S. Pearl Street. This travels across the river on the Dunn Memorial Bridge.

After entering Rensselaer follow the directions below: At the end of the bridge, stay to the left, following the signs to East Greenbush via Rtes. 9 and 20. Staying on the main road, you will go through Rensselaer and up the hill (Columbia Turnpike - Rtes. 9 and 20). After crossing two overpasses, take a left at the light at the top of the hill this will be Discovery Dr. This entrance is marked with a large University sign. The first building you will see is a large white and glass building, the Gen*NY*Sis Center for Excellence in Cancer Genomics. Take your first left onto University Place. You will see the George Education Center (on the left). Continue to the brick semi-circular building, to the right you will find a reserved parking spot for the Upstate KIDS clinic in front of a building labeled D-wing. Staff will be waiting outside to greet you.
